Though we have been in war for nearly three years, the La Mezcla Staff is able once more to produce their year book. We, the members of the La Mezcla Staff, thank Mr. Stone and Miss Emily Reese for their very capable guidance and hope and pray that everything turns out all right. Earl Athey, Editor, who has worked very hard in getting this La Mezcla out has done a fine job. Other members of the staff were: June Huck, Assistant Editor; Johnny Hendricks, Manager; Albert Guyan, Assistant Manager; Sally Low, Classes. Bill Braker has given the Boys' Sports a fine write up and Veleta Jones and Carley Richardson have also done justice to the Girls' Sports. Mildred Lawrence handled the Features and Bruce Woolner and Benny Low took care of the humor section. Class Wills were written by Jo Ann Kyle and Marian Glashoff. Dan McLean did a good job of gazing in his crystal ball in the Class Prophecy. Horoscope was written by Thelma Thompson and Joy Perry. The cover was done under the skillful hands of Miss Bean. Calendar was recorded by Emma Ruiz and Josephine Serrano. The Photographic work was done under the guidance of Lonnie Smith and Eva Magill. Dolores Serpas and other members of the La Mezcla Staff did a fine job of typing.

Dramatics

The combined Dramatics Class consisting of Juniors and Seniors have had a busy year presenting various types of programs.

Block "A" Society

At the beginning of the second semester, Armijo's 1944 Block "A" held their first meeting of the season. With Joe Wolfskill as chairman, they held elections for president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. Joe Wolfskill was elected president and Lonnie Smith to the vice-president position and Bill Royston took over his duties as secretary-treasurer.

There was a Block "A" dance during April in which money was divided between the G. A. S. and the Block "A". Proceeds were to pay for school medals.

Those who are eligible for Senior Athletic medals are: Earl Athey with four years of basketball, four years football and two years track. ## The Armijo Band

During a whole year's progress, the Armijo band has added a great many numbers to their repertoire. Many of the numbers are favorites as "Star Dust" and "My Hero," which everyone enjoys.

The band gave us its usual fine support throughout the football and basketball season. It took a lot of work from both Mr. Gillespie and the band members to play for all these games. The Yell Leaders, Veleta Jones and Johnny Hendricks have worked in cooperation with the band, and made many of the games a success rather than a flop. In addition to playing for the games, every program we have had there were the band members preceding it. Gene Blanc has been the president of the band. Dick Hossman and Tom Coffey are the band librarians.

Majorettes

Theda Jones, Blanche Baker, Esther Engell.

Glee Club

The Glee Club has had one of their most successful years under the direction of Mr. Gillespie. On the Lincoln-Washington program, the Glee Club sang "Minnie the Mermaid" and "Ain't We Got Fun," the whole student body left singing these catchy tunes.

There has been a sextet and numerous groups formed throughout the year. They have sung for outside organizations as well as our own programs.

Front Row: Eloise Headlee, Marcella Moore, Virginia Downer, Dorothy Wampler, Enola Downer, Alice Medeiros, Trinidad Cruz, Lorraine Lambert (at piano).

Standing: Helen Medeiros, Lois Mason, Manuella Rellis, Mary Lindner, Shirley Horgan, Prebble Redding, Pat Irby, Mayme Mauldin.

Girls' Sports

Our girls' sports season started with baseball. A team was picked from each class by Carley Richardson, Baseball Manager, and Miss Bean. The games were played during seventh period and the Juniors came out as "champs." The "Varsity" and "All Star" teams were picked from the best players on the class teams.

Baseball was followed by Basketball, which the girls played very well. After practicing for about a month, class teams were picked by our Basketball Manager, Mildred Lawrence.

A series of games were played in which the Seniors came out as victors. With the termination of the sport, the Varsity and All Star teams were selected by Mildred Lawrence and Miss Bean.

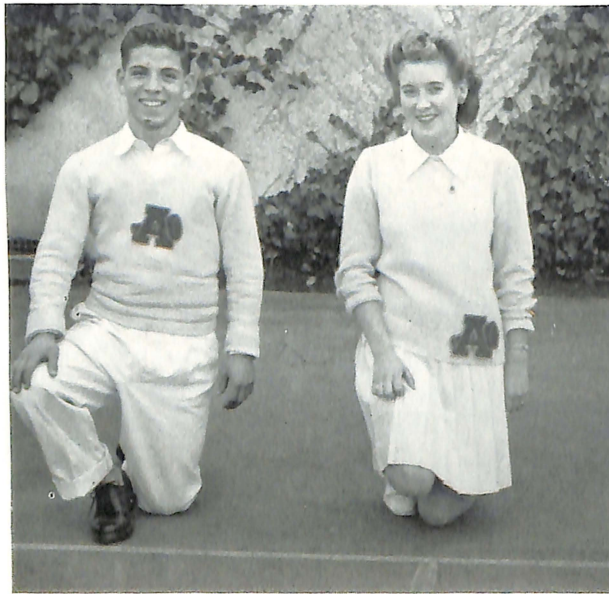

Tennis was very ably managed by Thelma Thompson. We had an unusually large turn out of twenty-four for this sport.

Those girls earning 250 points joined the Girls' Athletic Society. Those joining and receiving their numerals were: Josephine Serrano, Beckie Thomas, Beckie Asis, Beatrice Hagar, Amparo Cruz, Ann Lazaro, Evangeline Flores, Pat Irby, Christine Paoli, Frances Smith, Joy Perry, Frances Low, Ellen Aaron, Jean Marie Myers, Mary McDiarmid, Theda Jones.

Those earning the small block for 500 points were: J'Nell Moore, Donalene Smith, Rose Ware, Thelma Thompson, Bessie Carrion, Beckie Asis, Donna Dahlman.

Those receiving the large block for 900 points were: J'Nell Moore, Louise Chermisin, Sally Low, Mary Lindner, Helen Flores, Marge Larson. The four girls who earned the highest award, a G. A. S. pin, for 1350 points were: Eva Lynn Magill, Mildred Lawrence, Veleta Jones, and Carley Richardson.

Football

Armijo's small varsity didn't do so good this year. They came out on the short-end of the games, winning one and losing five. The first game of the season was against Saint Vincents of Vallejo. Our team looked green and lost this game 28-0. Next they tackled a stronger and much bigger Dixon eleven, who again walked over the poor helpless Indians, 28 to 0. Spark plug for the Rams was Farley, a big lad, who just couldn't be stopped.

Armijo's varsity came to life the next game with Rio Vista. The Indians won 13 to 7. This was their only win of the 1943 and 1944 grid classics. Bill Royston, playing at the right half position, intercepted a pass thrown by Rio Vista and rambled 60 yards down the side lines—with excellent blocking by the quarterback, Gordon Farrell and the fullback, Earl Athey—for the first score of the game and the first score of the year. The conversion was made by Gordon Farrell with Earl Athey holding the ball for the place kick. Armijo took the lead 7 to Rio's 0. In the second quarter, there was a fumble in Armijo's backfield and the ball landed right in the arms of a Rio man who romped on down the side lines the remaining 30 yards for Rio's lone tally of the game. Armijo's next score came on successive line drives until Athey carried it over from the 8 yard on a off-tackle play, to give Armijo the biggest upset of the season by a score of 13-6.

Football

While Armijo's Varsity Football was still in a football mood, they took on a strong St. Helena eleven. This was a hard fought game with the Saints winning 19-14. The thrilling part of the game was when Armijo was on the Saint's 4 yard line and seconds left to play, the quarterback called two plays and on the second play, a pass was intercepted by Saint Helena and they started down field. Lonnie Smith picked himself off the ground and ran down spilling him right on the 50 yard marker as the gun went off ending the game. Where Smith got that much energy is still a mystery to the students and faculty of Armijo.

Armijo's next defeat was at the hands of a hard hitting, hard playing, Vacaville squad. The game ended with the Bulldogs leading 14 to 0. In this game Earl Athey suffered an injured leg two minutes after the game started. He was replaced by Dick Teeple. Vacaville was strong this year and ran over Armijo very easily, especially with big Bagley carrying the pigskin. Lorenzo pitching the ball, and Bera on the end of each pass.

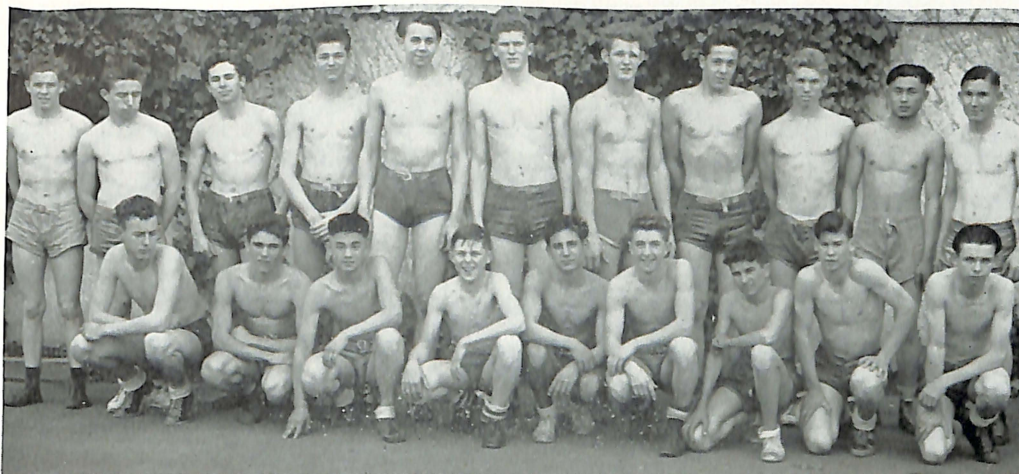

The last game of the season was with Esparto on Esparto's turf. This game was exciting for Esparto and dull for the Armijoites. Jack Russell, Charles Scally and Charles Okell weren't there because of an automobile accident. Well, anyway, Esparto won 32 to 7. Athey put across the only score and conversion. Farrell was put out of the game in the third quarter with a broken wrist and the team went to pieces. A few of this year's Varsity will return again next year. Here's hoping they have better luck than the 1943-44 Varsity did.

The all-year line-up as named by Coach E. F. (Jack) Niday is as follows. At the left end post was Newton Phillips, who played excellent ball all year round; Doug Tomasini was his substitute. At left tackle was Lonnie Smith, a rugged brute who also added to the team's hitting power; left guard was James McAllister, an average ball player. At the center position was T. J. Roberson; at the right guard spot was Gene Blanc, who missed several games because of a broken nose suffered in the Dixon game; at right tackle was Jack Russell; and at right end was Charles Okell.

In the backfield at the quarter-back position was Little Gordon Farrell who called the plays accurately and kept the spirit high. At left half was Joe Wolfskill, a Mankas Corner boy and noted for being rugged; the same applies to Charles Scally who played right half. Earl Athey took over the fullback position.

These men are all eligible for a large Block "A" letter: Newton Phillips, Lonnie Smith, James McAllister, T. J. Roberson, Gene Blanc, Jack Russell, Charles Okell, Doug Thomasini, Bill Royston, Allan Scrivner, Joe Wolfskill, Charles Scally, Gordon Farrell, and Earl Athey.

"C" TRACK

The "C" track team was very inexperienced and very few turned out. Although most of them were freshmen, Armijo is looking forward to the time when they will become Varsity men. Hendricks, Foon, Fone, Low, Athey and Guyan were the few candidates that ran for the Armijo lightweights.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Varsity had one of the poorest seasons since the 1937 team, losing 11 games and winning one. The winning game was from St. Vincents, by a 31-26 score. Starting most of the games for the Varsity were Bob Fockler and Bruce Woolner forwards, Earl Athey at center, Jack Russell and Bud Mangels at guard. Doug Tomasini saw a lot of action at forward and Lee Whitley served as a reserve guard. Bob Simons saw a little action as center. Earl Athey led the scorers throughout the season, with 97 points followed by Bob Fockler with 61. Woolner got 43, Tomasini 33 and Russell made 26. Bud Mangels tallied up 11 points while Coffey swished through 6. Lee Whitley dropped in one free toss. Jack Russell was elected as captain.

BEE BASKETBALL

The Bee team fared a little better than the Varsity, keeping up in a tie with Vacaville for the league championship. In the final playoff, Vacaville won by a 27-24 margin, to knock Armijo out of the running. Starting the majority of the games were Gordon Farrell and Bill Braker forwards, Henry Serrano at center, Joe Wolfskill and Bill Royston at guards. Joe Wolfskill also led the team's scoring, tallying up a huge 88 points. Henry Serrano netted 61 while Bill Braker swished in 59. De Gracia pushed in 46 with Farrell next by plunking 34. Bill Royston was right on Farrell's heels with 32. Charlie Lum saw quite a bit of action and scored 3 points. Joe Wolfskill was unanimously chosen as captain.

CEE TEAM

The Armijo C team had a medium season, losing just about half their games. Fairfield Grammar School served as opposition for practice games 5 times, Armijo winning 3 and losing 2. They won two from Benicia, while dropping 2 to Rio Vista and 3 to Vacaville. Albert Guyan and Smith Fone played forwards, Arnold Athey center and Frank Hendricks and Willy Sabino served as starters in the majority of the games.

BASKETBALL SEASON

The Armijo basketball season got off to a fast start, with opening practice starting on November 22. The first game was on December 10th against the Napa High School. The Varsity made a poor showing this year, winning only one game while the B's and C's showed up a little better.

Although the coach was new and had very little idea of what kind of material to expect, he was all smiles after the first day. The Varsity prospects were high, with Earl Athey, Bob Fockler and Doug Tomasini all over six feet and Jack Russell, Charles Scally, Bruce Woolner, Bud Mangels and Tom Coffey all near 5'11". With such height on a team, Coach figured the team should go well and win a pennant or two. But after the first few games, his ideas dropped and he saw a ray of light in the smaller "B" team. Although the team was small, the way in which they worked together and the accurate shooting of Joe Wolfskill accounted for many victories for the B team. The C team was developed late in the year, with veterans Lawrence Scholl, Al Guyan, and Frank Hendricks returning. Arnold Athey, Smith Fone, William Sabino, John Fernandez and Willy Foon completed the team. Their season was halfway between successful and unsuccessful. They ended up third in the league—losing their chance for second place when Rio Vista defeated them 25-23 in an overtime period. Scholl and Athey were the spark plugs of the C's. Al Guyan was the only Senior to play his last game on the C team, while on the B's, Joe Wolfskill, Bill Royston and Bill Braker played their last game in a play-off with Vacaville in which Vacaville won by a small but yet precious three points. On the Varsity, Jack Russell, Lee Whitley, Bruce Woolner and Earl Athey competed in their last high school game. During the latter part of the season, Armijo received two new six footers, Bob Simmons and Clarence Thompson, transfers from San Diego. This increased the Varsity's height to an average of 6 feet 1 inch, but it seemed as though height wasn't enough.

Summing up the year's scores, the Varsity played twelve games, won one and lost eleven. The B's played 13 games and won 8 losing only 5. The C team played seven games, winning three and dropping four. Here is a list of games and the final scores:

TENNIS

Due to the lack of experienced tennis players, Coach James Barkley had no one entered in county competition. Those who did appear on the courts and were willing to learn, devoted time to fundamentals and gaining knowledge well needed before going into a match next year. However, the players will be more experienced and should put up a good fight against the opposition.

Jokes

He had taken pains, when he applied for work, to assure the farmer that he never got tired. When his new employer went to the field where he had put the man at work he found him lolling on his back under a tree.

"What does this mean?" asked the farmer. "I thought you were a man who never got tired?"

"I don't," said the hired man, calmly. "This doesn't tire me."

"If there is a labor shortage on our farms, why can't farmers work overtime, just as factory workers do?" asked a War Production Board official in a recent hearing at Washington on the farm labor situation. The congressmen who heard his question were too amazed to answer.

Jack: "If you refuse me, Mae, I shall never love another."

Mae: "That part is okay with me, but what I want to know is, will it hold good if I accept you?"

A farmer in great need of more help finally asked Doug Tomasini if he could help him out.

"What'll you pay?" demanded Doug.

"I'll pay what you're worth," answered the farmer.

Doug scratched his head a minute and then answered, decisively: "I'll be durned if I'll work for that."

The policeman was taking his prisoner to the station when a gust of wind blew off the prisoner's hat.

"Let me git it," the arrested man begged. "That's the only one I got."

"What?" said the cop, grinning, "let you chase it and get away? I'm not as dumb as that. You stay here and I'll run for the hat."

David: "Say, pop, did you go to Sunday School when you were a boy?"

H.E.S.: "Yes, son, regularly."

David: "I'll bet it won't do me any good either."

"I know I'm an old-fashioned mother but I'd like to know where you go," said Mrs. Thomas to her daughter, Becky.

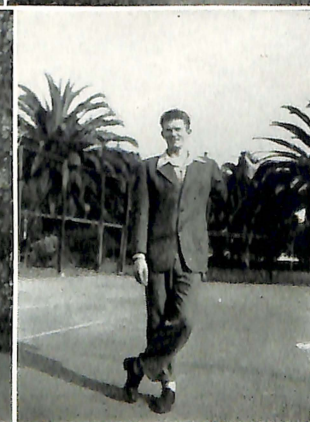

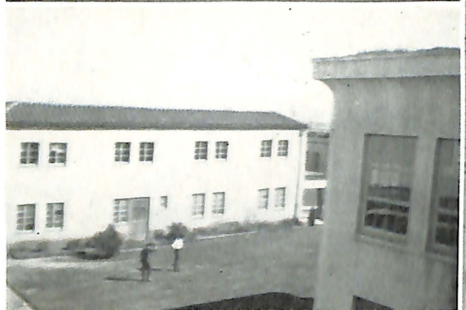

"Of course, darling," replied Becky. "Last night I had dinner with a new boy friend—you don't know him, but he's awfully sweet—and we went to several places I don't think you've ever heard of, and finished up at a funny little night club, but I can't remember its name. All right, Mummy?"

"Of course, dear. I just like to know."

Hitler, inspecting his troops, asked one soldier: "What would be your last wish if a Russian bomb fell near you?"

The soldier replied: "I would wish that my beloved Fuehrer could be at my side."

Class Prophecy

As we gaze into the crystal ball, we see twenty years into the future: The mists are clearing before our eyes. Ah! It is clear! And before us stretches the little community of Fairfield. The year is 1964. A-ha! We behold a prosperous looking group of individuals; and upon close inspection they prove to be none other than Messrs. Jack Russell and Joe Wolfskill, proprietors of the Empire Fish Market. It will be recalled that the Empire Fish Market was built on the site of the old Solano Republican office, which was blasted to bits by a bomb hurled by Dan MacLean, the noted arsonist. It is rumored that his wife, the former Miss Jo-Ann Kyle, divorced him before he was taken to the local asylum. She later married Don Jacobs, Fairfield's third assistant truant officer.

Glancing down the street we see entering the Flores Bar and Ping-Pong Parlor (Helen and Rose Flores) that woman-about-town, Marian Glas-hoff, the latest attraction at the Liberty Theatre. Near Miss Glashoff at the bar is Veleta Jones and her latest husband Charles Scally. It seems they are about to indulge in a short (Hic!)—a short (Hic!)—a short coke. On the floor, in the far corner, we observe Mrs. Roy Niles, the former Miss Jean Marie Myers. Miss Flores says Mrs. Niles is the best scrub woman they have ever had.

As we look outside once again, we see none other than the hero of the Battle of the Suisun Slough, Admiral Bill Braker, talking over the situation with Admiral Nimitz. At Admiral Braker's side is his wife, the former Miss June Huck.

The scene shifts to the other side of the street. There we see Mr. John Chan, proprietor of the Forbidden City, Fairfield's largest, finest and only night club. With him is Miss Sally Low, featured dancer at the Forbidden City. Beside her is her assistant Becky Thomas who hands Miss Low her fans.

The crystal grows dim once more—the scene changes. We see the funeral procession of that famous actor, Bruce Woolner. He was killed in a duel with Earl Athey, the local undertaker. It is rumored that both were in love with Miss Eva Lynn Magill, owner of the local sewage disposal plant. Miss Magill did not wed either but instead, she married Glen Burdick, manager of the Guyan Glue Factory (A. Guyan, Prop.) Mournfully watching the funeral cortege is John Hendricks, famous composer of Dairsy Moats, successor to Mairsy Doats. Accompanying him is his wife, the former Dolores Rodriguez, the first woman president, Mrs. Hendrick's secretary, Mr. Jack Russell is found near these two. He looks very well in his quaint outfit of burlap sacking and a large handful of ashes. By Jack Russell, with the ashes dribbling on his upturned face, sits Bill Evanikoff, the noted Yogi. Seated with him on his bed of Spikes is Bob Allison, the man who designed the rocketship that made the trip to the moon. Mr. Allison is now a rich man due to the fact that his rocket carried on its return trip a large green cheese which Mr. Allison sold at a great profit. Following the funeral procession are Enola Downer and Lorraine Lambert, the famous movie stars, who acted with the deeply mourned Woolner. Accompanying this sorrowing two is Miss Charlotte Gordon, the inventor of the Gordon Georgeous Girdle.

Miss Gordon has chosen to use this occasion to have her models Misses Emma Ruiz and Josephine Serrano model some of her creations.

As the globe grows dim once more we change scenes. Next we see that hot spot in town L. B. Mauldin's Barber Shop. Seated in one of the many chairs (2) we find Lonnie Smith, the manager of Madam Thelma Thompson's Gingerwave Shop, getting a manicure.

The manicurist holding his dirty lunch hooks is Miss Mildred Lawrence. It is to be remembered that Miss Lawrence was the one who sunk the German battleship single handed. (She was swimming in the slough when she sighted the craft. Coming alongside she kicked in the side and sunk it with all hands on board.) At the next chair is lady barber Miss Carley Richardson, giving Mr. Lee Whitley a shave. Everyone knows that Mr. Whitley has never raised a single whisker, but he keeps on hoping.

Class Will

We the class of 1944 of Armijo Union High School do make the following as our last will and testament.

To the crest-fallen faculty we will and bequeath our infinite patience.

To the Juniors we do will and bequeath our injured innocence.

To the Sophomores we do will and bequeath the inspiring thought that they too will one day be Seniors.

To the Freshmen we do will and bequeath our tranquil airs but blustering ways.

Individually we do will the following:

I, Bob Allison, do will my dates to Clarence Hall.
